My name is Oleksandr Nod. I live in Transcarpathia region of Ukraine.

My grandfather - Jan Tomko - was born in Kosice (Kassa) in 1905 , now Slovakia.
He has a younger brother - Imrich Tomko, who immigrate to australia after W.W.II with his wife Helena Tomko and after we have not informations about them.

After long years of challenge, now I find their names at this article (list).
If you can , give me , please , information about them and details for the members of the family, how to find them now .

Sincerely yours,
Oleksandr Nod

Correspondence added 07 MAY 2012 Passenger #649 TOTH

Antal (Tony) was born in Torda, Hungary in 1919
As a displaced person after the end of World WAR II he arrived in Sydney Australia. On the 29th September, 1948 Bathurst Migrant Camp was his new home, here he played soccer, learnt to play tennis and was the Camp Hairdresser until 1952, moving on to Greta Migrant Camp (NSW) until 1954. In 1954 he went to Bonegilla Migrant Camp in Victoria, still working as the Camp Hairdresser.
With his friend and business partner, Bob, the two opened the United Nations Shop in 1956, on the Murray Valley Highway, just outside the Migrant Camp. The shop provided goods and chattels, petrol and a taxi service for the people of the camp.
Antal married Hermine (a migrant worker from Austria) in 1957. They have three daughters and all live in Queensland.

It is believed that this transcription only lists those who disembarked in Fremantle, since the ship carried hundreds more passengers. The source was most likely the records in the National Archives of Australia's Perth collection.
